

THE PORTSMOUTH HERALD.

VOL. XV., NO. 4134.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6, 1898.

PRICE 2 CENTS

A GREAT INDUCEMENT FOR YOU
TO PAY CASH FOR YOUR BOOTS AND SHOES,
Clothing, Hats, Caps and Furnishing Goods,
AND TO BUY OF ME.

OUR OFFER:—With each 25 cent purchase we will give you a certificate; when you have secured 100 certificates we will sell you a bicycle that is listed at $85.00 for $27.85. Come in and let us explain how we can make you this GREAT OFFER. Every wheel warranted.

Wm. H. FAY
Shoes Clothing and Furnishings,
3 Congress Street, Portsmouth N. H.
Spring Goods Arriving Daily

WHITE PINE AND TAR.

B. and N.,
Promptly Cures a Cough and Relieves
Throat Irritation.

BOARDMAN & NORTON,
Apothecaries,
Directly Opposite Post Office.

LEAVITT

LESTER

We having purchased the stock and business interests of the late John S. Treat, we shall continue the Granite and Marble business at the old stand, corner of Deer and Vaughan Streets

A large stock of finished Monuments and Tablets now on hand
Call and examine our stock and get our prices.

John E. Leavitt, Thomas G. Lester

ALL WHO ARE
In a position to know acknowledge the excellence of our work, and our prices are right.

LAWRENCE,
FINE TAILORING,
9 CONGRESS ST.

THE NATIONAL BICYCLE.

The acme of Excellence in cycle construction.
We shall be pleased to explain its merits to all who call.

F. B. Parshley & Co.,
16 Congress St.

C. H. Hussey.
OPTICIAN AND REFRACTIONIST
1 Congress St., Portsmouth
EXAMINATIONS FREE

PORTSMOUTH KISSES
Are the Best.
— They are Delicious —
MOLASSES, WALNUT AND CHOCOLATE.
— Manufactured by —
RALPH GREEN,

ALLEGED MURDERER.

Nason, Alias Shackley, Transferred to Portsmouth Jail.

Deputy Sheriff Collis Now Has the Desperate Prisoner Under His Care.

W. F. Nason, alias Peter Shackley, alleged murderer of an unknown man ten years ago, arrived in this city on the "Yankee" last evening and is now an inmate of Portsmouth jail.

Shackley was taken from the Carroll County jail last evening and in company with High Sheriff Atkinson of Madison and Constable Lang was placed aboard the cars and brought to this city. For a month he has been an inmate of the Ossipee jail and the officers, fearing an escape, have had an extra guard constantly in attendance. The reason for his being brought here was with the idea of being safer behind the walls of our county jail.

Upon arrival of the "Yankee" last evening Shackley and his guardians left the train and were at once placed in a back and driven to the jail. His coming had not been announced and consequently but a few people knew who the man was that had his wrist shackled to that of Sheriff Atkinson.

At the jail the party was received by Jailer Collis and the prisoner, together with his commitment papers turned over to that official. Shackley was searched and then taken to the bath room where he received a refreshing bath. He was then placed in cell No. 5, which will be his home until he is wanted for trial. He will be given the liberty of the corridor with the other prisoners but will be closely watched by Turnkey Allen.

A reporter interviewed Lang on his arrival here and learned the following facts:

What led up to the arrest of Naou was the confession of Sherburn and a fellow named Stiles. Officer Lang, suspecting that Stiles might know something of the murder, has, for the past year, hired Stiles to work for him in his livery stable all of this time, drawing parts of the murder story from him.

When Nason tried to implicate Stiles and Sherburn in the stealing of the harness, which was afterwards found on the premises of Nason, Stiles, becoming angry at the implication, fell an easy subject in the hands of Lang, and both he and Sherburn broke down and admitted the murder of the stranger by Nason, ten years ago.

Tuesday afternoon Sherburn was arraigned before Judge Sawyer of Carroll county, and in default of $10,000 bonds will be taken to Ossipee jail today to be held as a witness. Stiles has not been arrested yet, but is constantly under the espionage of the Sanboronville officers. Some startling developments will, in all probability, appear in the case in a few days, and it seems almost certain that one or more prominent citizens of Sanboronville will be implicated.

When Sherburn was arrested in Hampton Falls by Deputy Sheriff Collis of this city and Constable Lang, he completely broke down and confessed to being a witness to the murder by Nason, directly accusing him. He told of the murder, the subsequent hiding of the body and of the moving it from place to place until it was discovered in Lovell's pond. The body was afterward buried, by order of the selectmen.

Tuesday afternoon Attorney Arthur

CITY OF ROCHESTER
Office of City Marshal.

ROCHESTER, N. H., March 4th, 1898

C. A. Herbert, Manager,
Granite File Cure Co., Concord, N. H.
Dear Sir:—I have been a great sufferer from File for over 30 years, and a constant sufferer, never having only temporary relief. The pain has been very severe, and at times, using me up entirely. I have had the Frotting File, have tried every remedy and cure I ever heard of, have consulted doctors, all with the same effect, and I still had them with me; had practically given up of ever getting any relief until I read one of your little books. I wrote to you immediately, as I knew you very well. I commenced to improve, and now, after using one cure and another, I am well along to the completion of a permanent cure, am not troubled with prodding at all, and all inflammation has entirely gone. Your cure is perfect, so far in application, and, as far as curing, that it is a pleasure to use it. I am very thankful that I used it. I hope this testimonial will induce some sufferers to try this cure; it will surely cure.

Both train crews on the York Harbor and Beach road have to put up at York nights on account of their having to leave there so early mornings.

Extra coal trains are run every day now over the Concord road in order to handle the big amount of coal that is being discharged here.

Portsmouth Medical Society

The regular monthly meeting of the Portsmouth Medical society was held in the office of Dr. Lyons on State street over the Concord road in order to handle the big amount of coal that is being discharged here.

Years with heartfelt thanks,
O. B. WARREN,
City Marshal,

LOST HER PAPA

Found a Friend However Who Was Good and Easy

She was one of those demure little maid in whose bosom of a mouth butter would hardly dissolve.

As she stood beneath the glare of an electric light, unmindful of the hurry and dash about her and asked the young Portsmouth politician if he had seen anything of her "papa," a pearly tear seemed to find its way from the corner of the heavily fringed orbs of night and trickle slowly down over the pink cheek.

The rising young politician was easy meat. No, he had not seen her "papa" but could be of any service to her. Yes, he could help her, for she was a stranger in the big hub of the universe and knew not which way to turn. Her father had left her a couple of hours ago to do a little business and was to have returned in an hour. She had waited sixty long minutes and was getting terribly nervous.

Would he care to wait for awhile and keep her company until papa returned. Of course he would and together they walked up and down in front of the big Union station for at least an hour longer. Then they gave it up and she decided that she would go to a hotel for the night and start out bright and early in the morning to look up "papa."

He had missed his train and as he had some time to wait accompanied her to the hotel to see that she was made comfortable. She was such a shy thing and unused to city life. At the hotel she suddenly remembered that "papa" had her pocket-book, she having no pockets in her best clothes. What should she do? Again he came to the rescue and begged the privilege of loaning her a five dollar bill. She thanked him profusely and after taking his name and address that "papa" might send him a check and thank him for his kindness, she extended the tips of a tightly gloved little hand and then took the elevator.

All this happened over two weeks ago and as yet "papa" has failed to send that check. Yesterday the young politician again visited Boston and almost the first person he saw upon emerging from the Union station was his fair friend. She stood in the same place and was wearing that same distressed, half frightened expression. She saw him coming and at once bolted for a car and made good her escape.

A Musical Fornet

The last concert in the Eastman orchestra series was held last evening and in spite of the weather a large audience assembled at Peirce hall and enthusiastically applauded the fine work of the orchestra and soloists.

Of the orchestra it is sufficient to say that they played as of yore and entranced the audience with their superb selections.

De Scheles, the violinist, was a master of that instrument and was forced to respond to a number of encores.

Miss Cora Barnabee sang in her usual fine manner and was given a hearty welcome and forced to respond to several encores. The singing of the trio, Miss Barnabee and Messrs. Grav and Horwitz was a fitting finale to a most excellent musical program.

The program of the evening's entertainment was as follows:

1 Overture, Alessandro Stradella, Flotow

2 Soprano Solo, Arise from "Le Cid," Massenet

3 Violin Solo, "Theme Original" Op 15 O C de Scheles, Wieniawski

4 Tenor Solo, "Angel at the Window," Mr Geo W Horne, Toms

5 String Orchestra, Intermission, "Forget-me-not," Macbeth

b Cradle Song, Theo Bendix

INTERMISSION

6 Selection from Opera "Rigoletto," Verdi

7 Vocal Duet, "Dews of the Summer Night," Buck

Miss Barnabee and Mr Horne

8 Violin Solo, Polonaise, F Lamb O C de Scheles

9 Trio et Finale to Opera "Serenade," V Herbert

Miss Barnabee, Messrs Horne and Gray, with Orchestra

Depot Notes.

Amt expended for witness fees, etc.

paid City Treas.

Rec'd from Newington case

" Cochrane "

" Bank watch

$1336.29

Amt not properly recovered and returned to owners

collected for dog license

Whole number of arrests made during year

Number of arrests for drunkenness and tried during year

Street lights reported out

Store doors found open and owners notified

Logen cared for during year

(Signed)

A. F. HOWARD,

J. E. DIMICK,

JOHN J. LASKEY.

Called On

John G Frost, John Jones, H. C. Gove,

W. H. Huntress, W. H. Keniston, B. M.

Field, R. C. Stephenson, E. E. Chase, Lyman Moore, S. E. Adams, Cornelius Quinn,

W. H. Wentworth, John H. Wiggin, J. S.

Lawry, Wm. Gammon, J. C. Tilton, W. H.

Morton, O. F. Hiley, W. H. Noyes, W. H.

Morton, W. F. Laskey, E. I. Fernald, Zina

H. Jackson, H. C. Lovell, J. W. Raitt, J. E.

Wiggin and John Sullivan were required on the navy yard today.

Accident and Life Insurance.

Wm. H. PALMER,

38 Market Street

Representing the Massachusetts Municipal Accident Association and the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn.

RIVER AND HARBOR

Schooner Sarah Wood, Douglas, arrived last evening from Philadelphia with 391 tons of coal for J. A. and A. W. Walker.

Tug H. A. Mathes towed the barge Extra to York yesterday.

Schooner William Jones, McClean, finished discharging and sailed for Hillsboro.

Arrived yesterday schooner Maud Mulluk, Lut, from New York with a cargo of coal for Dover parties.

Boatman Maggie Chadwick, Starkey, turned for St. John this morning to load lumber.

Bricker G. W. Rutt came down river

this morning and sailed for Boston.

Schooner Damietta and Joanna is on the way here from Firth Amboy with a cargo of coal.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

Every married man wonders what becomes of all the lace night gowns he sees in shop windows.

Cleaning house in the average woman belongs midway between her love for her husband and her religion.

You can generally judge a girl pretty well by the number of weeks a spot on the sleeve of her coat is still there.

Most women would rather the others thought they weren't good Christians than they weren't good housekeepers.

About once a year a woman spends several days congratulating her husband on his having her to save up his money for him.

No girl is really nixed when a man kisses her unless she forgets to say how surprised she is that he ever thought of her that way.—New York Press.

Opens up a Recruiting Office

Orders have been received at the navy yard to open a recruiting office on the U. S. S. Essex at once and Commander Remey has detailed Commander R. E. Impy as recruiting officer with Past Assistant Surgeon Fitts as examiner. Men in the various skilled trades will be enlisted and they will at once be taken to the receiving ship Wabash. Commander Rush will no doubt be ordered to one of the recently acquired war ships and other officers at the yard will be detached.

Taken to the Hospital

William Ballard, steward on board the schooner Louis C. Ballard, Capt. Beare, was taken to the Cottage hospital this morning suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism. He has been ill for nearly a week now, but has been able to attend to his duties up to this morning. A doctor was sent for who ordered the man removed to the hospital at once where he will receive every care under the government marine hospital service.

UNKNOWN Dog Shot

State Agent Hodgkins of the N. H. S. P. C. A. was called upon last evening to attend a Shepherd dog that had been struck by a shifter, near the round house, in the freight yard. The animal was so badly injured that it

THE HERALD.
(Formerly Evening Post)
Established Sept. 23, 1864.

Published every Evening, Sundays and holidays excepted.
Terms $1.00 per year, when paid in advance less a month, 2 cents per copy, delivered to any part of the city or sent by mail.
Advertising rates reasonable and made known upon application.
Communications should be addressed
HERALD PUBLISHING CO.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H.
Telephone No. 3-44.
F. W. HARTFORD, &
B. M. TILTON, Editors and Proprietors.

Entered at the Portsmouth, N. H., Post Office as second class mail matter.

FOR PORTSMOUTH

AND PORTSMOUTH'S INTERESTS.

You want local news! Read the Herald. More local news than all other local dailies combined! Try it!

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6, 1898

The dogs of war are straining in their leashes.

And we nail up the furnace with a sigh of relief.

General Blanco is a trifles too late with his decree.

There is a disposition in certain quarters to capture that Spanish flotilla alive.

Virtue and John Wanamaker appear to be the under dog in the Pennsylvania fight.

Now if the yellow papers would also paint themselves a dull lead color like the war hips.

The war business is sub-tracking a great many issues that would be "absorbing" if given a fair chance.

The republicans might return the compliment by offering to lead a democratic "revolt in the house."

Mr. Bras of Texas got just what he was hunting for. His hat is a shining model to other many "reformers."

The insurgents may relent and ask Spain for an armistice at orders from Rome. But if they do will be a tremendous, sudden right about face. They do not want us to intervene forcibly. That seems to be accepted by everybody. They prefer to fight the battle out for themselves—but they intend to fight it out.

The Observatore Romano (representing the Pope in a degree), reviewing the situation, unflinchingly says: "We must regard America's demands as excessive, especially to Spain who has proposed to submit the whole administration question to the insular parliament." Truly? But why didn't she offer to submit it to Weyle? It would have been quite as appropriate.

Stocks wobble about a bit, but it is well worth noticing that history probably looks an instance in which the bonds of a country advanced as United States bonds did last week—2½ advancing $1.45, $2, and $5 50 cents—the week before a declaration of war with a European power was expected. The rise in railroad shares, trusts and federal bonds were all three due to the fact that the savings of the country are now increasing so rapidly that there is a constant pressure for investment. The dividends and interest payable April 1 are $34,000,000 this year, $20,500,000 a year ago, and $18,700,000 in 1895. It is rather a contrast to the toboggan slide of Spain's $4.

He Got the Girl.

"Mrs. Trichaway," said Francis Wallingford, "there is something that I have for a long time wished to say to you."

The present of the Society for the Squashing of Husbands looked over her glasses and said, "I evidently know what you are counting, but after a moment's silence she said in her most impressive platform tones:

"Well, go on. What is it?"

"I love your daughter, Miss Gladys. I have reason to believe that she returns my passion, and I want to ask you to give her into my keeping."

Mrs. Trichaway's features hardened, and there was a cold, metallic ring in her voice as she answered:

"What recommendations have you to offer for yourself? How can you convince me that you will always love her, that you will always think her beautiful?"

"She looks like her mother," said Francis Wallingford. "That is enough to convince me that her beauty will not diminish as she grows older. I am sure I know that Great Britain has the sympathy of the great commercial community throughout the world."

Mr. Harcourt, the liberal leader, spoke satirically of the policy of the "open door" and asked the reason for the change of policy. He said the treaty of Tien Tsin gave the British ships the right to use any port in China, and he expressed the desire to know specifically

His Number.

Little Willie Navarino (in art gallery)—I say, pa, why do they have all those num bers on the bottom of every picture? Look at this one—"Byron, 40."

Mr. Navarino—Oh, ah—I guess that's his telephone number.—Philadelphia Call.

TO REGISTER WISHES.

Looks Like the End of the Strike in Saco, Me.

MOVEMENT IN THAT DIRECTION.

whether that right was to be infringed. He asked for an explanation of the "removable clause" of policy upon the part of the government "in taking a lease of the railroads and setting up a rival port, with rival interests." He added that a military occupation of part of China might be necessary, but it would not be expedient, and it was impossible to believe that the occupation would be confined to the present modest limits.

WHAT BOSTON EDITORS SAY
The Advertiser Counsel

Boston, April 6.—In a strong article on the situation as it is today, The Advertiser says: "We take it for granted that those who have come forward with so much zeal—some of them for the first time—to express their confidence in McKinley's wisdom, knowledge, firmness, peaceableness, statesmanship and perfect trustworthiness as the head of the nation in this supreme hour, mean what they say. If so, they mean to follow him in war or peace. They mean to hold up their hands in every part of his arduous task and not in one part only. They mean to stand by him in his exertions for the independence of Cuba, as well as in his exertions to avert war with Spain. They trust his judgment both as to the time to negotiate and as to the time to break off negotiations. They stand ready to applaud him if he decides that war is inevitable just the same as while he yet hoped that peace is possible."

The Post considers it "clear that President McKinley realizes that the congress of the United States will not abrogate its authority and its duty to take action in this matter and that it is in no mood longer to delay action of some kind." The president, while vigorously, persistently striving for peace so long as there remains the slightest prospect of an amicable settlement of difficulties, realized that an open breach with Congress at this time would diminish his influence and influence in all future developments. He undoubtedly prefers to lead rather than to be driven.

Another meeting of the operatives who wish to go to work was attended by nearly 1,000. Several speakers urged the workers to return to work, as there was no possibility of getting back the old wages.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

Another meeting of the operatives who wish to go to work was attended by nearly 1,000. Several speakers urged the workers to return to work, as there was no possibility of getting back the old wages.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

Another meeting of the operatives who wish to go to work was attended by nearly 1,000. Several speakers urged the workers to return to work, as there was no possibility of getting back the old wages.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a just resistance of an unjust cut down, of the opinion that the strikers should return to work, as there is no possibility of the corporation agreeing to restore wages to the old schedule.

The gates are open, and the operators have made a

This is the Package—

remember it. It contains

GOLD DUST

Washing Powder

that cleans everything quickly, cheaply and perfectly.

Largest package—greatest economy.
THE H. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY,
Chicago, St. Louis, New York,
Boston, Philadelphia.

"I AM STILL HOPEFUL OF PEACE."

Declaration of the Spanish Minister in Washington.

War Contrary to the Dictates of Civilization.

The President's Message to Recommend Armed Intervention to Prevent Hostilities and Suffer for the Starving, and to Discouragement Recognizing Independence—Speculating as to the Attitude of the Congress—Conservatives Anxious That Mr. McKinley's Policy Shall Be Acquiesced In.

Washington, April 6.—The Spanish minister, Mr. Bernabe, consented yesterday to talk on the present condition of affairs. He spoke freely and at times with intense eagerness. The interview is authoritative throughout.

"I am still hopeful of peace," said he. "That may seem optimistic at a moment when such passions are aroused, such naval and military preparations are going on, and when the current of public sentiment seems to be that war is inevitable. I cannot say that I base my view that peace will prevail upon any direct official information. On the contrary it is my individual judgment, based solely upon the conviction that in these enlightened days two self-respecting nations, made up of men and women of high aspirations and noble instincts, cannot and will not resort to the last brutal expedient of war. It would be too wanton, too criminal, too offensive to all the dictates of civilization and Christianity for such an awful consequence to be brought about."

"To be sure, I cannot close my eyes to certain obvious circumstances existing both here and in Spain. At times these have inclined me to share the popular view that the relations between the two countries were fast approaching an irreconcileable state, and yet at no time has it seemed to me, nor does it now seem, that that issue had progressed beyond the bounds of reasonable and just settlement alike honorable to both governments."

"Consider for a moment some of the elements of this present crisis," the minister went on, speaking with much vigor. "Can it be possible that your people will consider only one side of the case? Let us for a moment admit that there are two sides to this case. There are always two sides to a case, and is it just or fair or chivalrous for your people, borne on by their strong and innate patriotism, to say, 'We are right, Spain is wrong, that ends it.' In a spirit of simple justice why will not this disposition yield for a moment to a calm consideration of both sides of the case, including some of those factors which are vital and essential to Spain?"

"Cuba has been a colony of Spain from time immemorial, from the time of the discovery by Christopher Columbus, and as a part of Spain there is clustered about it a reverence almost sacred. Cuba is regarded by our people just as you regard one of the states of your union. What would be said if some foreign power said to the United States that Illinois or Texas or California must be free and independent of the United States? Would not your very honor be brought in question? Of course I can understand that some one will rise up and say, 'Yes, but the states are well governed, and are at peace, while Cuba is misgoverned and in a state of insurrection.' There again simple justice and fairness demand that there be something more than abstract assertion. To be sure, your press tells of brutal savagery existing in Cuba. I do not wish to deal in recrimination, the time for that has gone by, but I give you my word that this savagery does not exist at all. All reliable reports, official and unofficial, Spanish and American come

YESTERDAY IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, April 6.—Wednesday was prolific of reports of mediation on the part of the European powers, but a summary of all the news on this point is that the powers of Europe cannot agree, and that their interference would be unacceptable to the government of the United States. Accompanying the diplomatic comment was an undercurrent of suggestion that developments in Cuba were not overlooked for, and that the pressure of the powers and the peace on Spain might yet bring about an armistice in which both Spanish troops and insurgents would participate. Viewed from the official standpoint, the time for that has gone, and there is little likelihood that the insurgents could be induced to lay down their arms even for a time.

At the capital a tremendous effort was made yesterday to have congress support the outlined policy of the president. A general belief was expressed when the house adjourned that a majority of the committee on foreign affairs was ready to support Mr. McKinley's plan and that a resolution in line with the recommendation of the president would be reported from the committee.

The kaleidoscope of international events appears to be moving so rapidly at Madrid as to make possible a new and possibly remarkable change in the aspect of affairs. The message is ready, makes 7000 words and has been approved by the cabinet. It recommends armed intervention by the United States to prevent hostilities and provide succor for the starving people, but, so far as known, without stating that intervention should be immediate. It makes an argument against recognition of independence at this time, and leaves it clear that in the opinion of the administration it is the duty of this government to supervise the affairs of the island and, until in the light of fuller and later knowledge, a stable government can be established.

The sentiment among the Republicans members of the house is strongly in favor of both intervention and the recognition of Cuban independence, and that the Maine affair will be brought prominently forward in the resolutions.

Some of the extremists want the whole action of the United States predicated upon the blowing up of the Maine. There is a general desire to prevent a divergence in the two sets of resolutions if possible, and if absolute unity of action can be obtained a movement will be started to have the bill introduced in the house within a day or two, "without debate," said Mr. Tawney of Minnesota, "would be the strongest and most dignified response we could make to Spain's refusal to accede to our demands. It would show that the house and the American people are absolutely united."

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senator Chandler Wants an Immediate Declaration of War.

Washington, April 6.—"The United States ought immediately to declare war against Spain and to maintain that war until the people of Cuba are made free from Spanish starvation and cruelty, and the government of the island freed, established as an independent republic."

The statement by Senator Chandler in his carefully prepared statement of his position on the Cuban crisis was the climax of an extended discussion of the subject participated in by several members in the senate yesterday afternoon.

Speeches were delivered also by Mr. Turner of Washington, Mr. Harris of Indiana and Mr. Keay of Delaware, all of whom took strong ground for vigorous and instant action by the United States.

Mr. Turner took substantially the same position as that of Mr. Chandler, basing his demand for action upon the Maine catastrophe. "With a diplomatic representative at Madrid," declared the senator, complicating the business of this country and defeating even his own frantic efforts for peace at any price, with a private secretary, the alter ego of the president, circulating appeals throughout the country for petitions and memorials to control an unruly and uncontrollable rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused in this country against the home rule regime which Spain has inaugurated in Cuba. It seems to be overlooked, in the passion of the moment, that home rule has been the aspiration of the Cubans for years. It seems to be overlooked that all Spain has sought to do in putting down a rebellion is what any government on the face of the earth would do. It seeks no more and no less than to preserve her established rights.

"Now, as to autonomy. For some reason intense feeling has been aroused

The Place To Buy

Print

OR Cambric
Wrappers

IS AT

Lewis E. Staples,

7 Market Street.

COLUMBIAN
CHOCOLATES

Finest Grade
(Per pound 50c.)

Maillard's Famous Mixture
OF CHOCOLATES
AND BON BONS
25 Cents

MYLIE'S MOLASSES
KISSES,
20 Cents.

GREEN'S WALNUT
KISSES.
20 Cents.

GIBSON'S LIME FRUIT TABLETS,
Per Quarter 15 Cents.

Hillbrick's Pharmacy

Franklin Street
Portsmouth, N. H.

CHILDREN'S CARRIAGE!

— OR —

Baby Carriages.
Either or both, we have a good assortment of each

With Shaved Spoke, Wood Wheels or
Rubber Tire Wheels and Patent Brake

PRICES ARE RIGHT.

See our carriages before you purchase.

W. E. PAUL,
39 to 45 Market Street

A High Pair Which Can't Beaten

Our line of Boys and Youth shoes is unequalled for elegance or wear. It is not to be duplicated elsewhere.

KNIGHT'S
Shoe Store,
10 Market Square.

FOR SALE.

50 Tons of Hay
In Large or Small Quantities.

Apply to

J. Edw. Pickering,
Portsmouth Steam Laundry,
67 Market St.

THE HERALD.

1898 APRIL 1898

SU.	Mo.	Tu.	We.	Th.	Fri.	Sat.
3	4	5	6	7	8	9
10	11	12	13	14	15	16
17	18	19	20	21	22	23
24	25	26	27	28	29	30

MOON PHASES.

Fall 4:35 New 5:37
Moon 6 p.m. Moon 20 p.m.
Third 9:45 First 9:21
Quarter 13 a.m. Quarter 28 p.m.

THE WEATHER FORECAST.

Though it will continue cold another 6 hours, it will be somewhat warmer Thursday and promises to be decidedly warmer the rest of the week.

ALMANAC THURSDAY, APRIL 6.

Sun rises 5:16 sets 6:17
Moon rises 7:44 p.m. Moon sets 11:45 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6, 1898.

For local news--While it is alive--Read the Herald.

Met in Dover

The Y. M. C. A. district committee of the Portsmouth, Dover and Rochester districts, met in Dover Monday afternoon in the rooms of the local association.

The make-up of the committee is as follows:

E. Scott Owen, Portsmouth, chairman;

John Young, Rochester, vice chairman;

E. B. Read, Dover, secretary treasurer;

and F. W. Teague, J. P. Hultman, Portsmouth; S. W. Smith, William Connell, C.

A. Davis, Rochester; W. C. Ogden, H. J.

Steever, E. E. Kidder, Dover. The work of the district committee is the extension of the association work by holding district conventions, securing corresponding members in towns too small to have an association, etc. The last convention in this district was held at Somersworth, January,

1897. The committee is making arrangements to hold the next in May, probably at Exeter.

Portsmouth Yacht Club

A number of enthusiastic yachtsmen met in Good Templars' hall on Tuesday evening and made final arrangements for the formation of a new yacht club in this city.

By a unanimous vote the name of the club will be the Portsmouth Yacht Club, and a committee of five was appointed to report inside of a week a list of names to be voted for as officers of the club.

After a general discussion on the rules and regulations to govern the club,

the members adjourned to a dinner call prepared by Chef Drown.

Cycle Club Booming

The regular monthly meeting of the

Pottsville Cycle Club was held at the club rooms on Tuesday evening, with President Barsante in the chair.

In addition to the regular routine business fourteen new members were voted in, which brings the membership up near the seventy-five mark. The chairman of the committee on the annual show reported everything as running smoothly and that by the 22d they would be ready to put on one of the finest shows ever seen in this city.

Co. Marvin Volunteers

Co. T. E. O. Marvin of Beverly, Mass.,

formerly of this city, has offered his services to the state in case of war.

TO THE GOLD FIELDS

Members of Portsmouth Klondike Party Leave for Seattle This Morning

The remaining members of the Portsmout Klondike party left for the gold fields thus morning, and by this time next week expect to be in Seattle. There they will join the party that left this city Dec. 11, in the schooner Concord.

The following are the names of those who left for Boston on the 7:20 train this morning: H. M. Seawards and J. E. Remick of Kittery, Daniel O. Seawards and J. F. Marden of Kittery Point, George P. Burleigh of Dover and J. J. Schurman of this city. At Boston they will be joined by George A. Bangham of Lowell, Henry A. Stone and Alexander M. Sonaway of Hudson, Ezra E. Kimball, Charles Grant and Austin A. Besley of Gloucester.

The party will number twelve men and they left Boston at 11 o'clock over the Lowell and Montreal road to Montreal. From there they will go direct to Seattle via St. Louis, on the Canadian Pacific road. They expect to arrive in Seattle on Monday morning about 7:30 and commence at once to make arrangements to get into the gold fields.

The party on the schooner Concord are not expected for a week or two after they get there, but during that time they will make all necessary plans and get everything in readiness to start as soon as the little schooner arrives.

Every one of the party who left here this morning were in good spirits and expect to return inside of two years a great deal better off than when they left.

Went Over the Mount

President Tuttle of the Portsmouth Horse Railroad company, together with the five directors and an electrical expert from Boston, were in town today and went over the route of the proposed street railway. Ex-street commissioner Rienzi Ridge accompanied them by request, and explained many minor details in regard to the road bed, towers, etc. The party took dinner at the Rockingham house where President Tuttle conferred with several of our prominent business men. As soon as the electrical engineer makes his report, bids will be received for the construction of the road and the work commenced at once.

General Manager McKinnon of the Boston and Maine railroad and L. G. Sargent head of the West End Street Railroad were also members of the party and by their experience in street railway matters will be invaluable to the projectors of the road.

Mr. T. E. O. Marvin of Beverly, Mass., formerly of this city, has offered his services to the state in case of war.

Robert E. Hodgkins was in Concord yesterday and testified before the grand jury there in a cruelty to animals case.

Stop Booking Passengers

A local ticket agent for one of the lines of steamships plying between New York and Europe has received orders not to book any more passengers until the war scare is over. This is said to be on account of the liability of the war department taking the company's steamers for use in the navy.

Painted, papered and whitewashed done with neatness and dispatch and on reasonable terms. First class work or no pay. Order slate, 15 Fleet street and 1 Walden street. Please give me a call.

C. W. ANDREWS.

CASCARET stimulate liver, kidneys and bowels. Never sicken, weaken or gripes 10c.

PERSONALS

Col. James A. Wood was a visitor in Dover yesterday.

Mr. Frank Seavey of Dover was a visitor in town on Tuesday.

Mr. Charles Sides is the guest of friends in Boston for a few days.

Electrician E. O. Sessions was in Boston Tuesday on business.

John Malone of Dover was a visitor in town on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Frank S. Preston left on Tuesday for a visit to friends in Boston.

Mr. Fred Drew returned from Boston Tuesday evening from a business trip to Biddeford.

W. E. Paul returned Tuesday evening from a business trip to Biddeford.

Judge Calvin Page was a passenger on the 7:20 train for Boston this morning.

Ex-Alderman Joshua M. Vaughan made a business trip to Boston this morning.

The Empress of Wei-Hai-Wei, too, if you please.

The kerosene tank runs low at the White House.

Ladies and gents box calf shoes for $2.00 at Knights.

The Spalding is the coming wheel. Be sure and ride one.

Old Homestead mince meat at the Globe Grocery Co.

The base ball season will open two weeks from tomorrow.

Trout fishermen will soon be overhauling their fishing tackle.

Nature is throwing a wet blanket over the war situation just now.

A good cigar is man's enjoyment. Next time try Dowd's Honest 10.

The prevailing weather is rather disagreeing for the bicyclists.

Well, we have 10 more auxiliary cruisers for some purpose or other.

John L. Kendall of this city has been granted an original pension of $6.

Following Gov. Tanner's example even the elements in Illinois are for war.

All the latest styles and colorings in Roxbury tapestries at the Globe Grocery Co.

Oilcloths all prices and 75 different patterns to select from at the Globe Grocery Co.

No need of sending the consular reports. There is plenty enough ammunition without them.

It is said that some people are so intensely patriotic that they refuse to use Castile soap.

The meeting of the Dorcas sewing circle of the Advent church is postponed until next week.

New Hampshire generally manages to come forward with a murder trial as a real attraction.

Most of the preachers stood firmly for the rescue of the starving Cubans. Be their the praise.

The "S. G." Londres is made of the choicest stock and is the best ten-cent cigar in the market.

There are horrors by water as well as by fire and war. Shawneetown knows this with deadly certainty.

A Maxim gun might get some maxims of decency, straightforwardness and civilization into a Spaniard's hide.

Even the long-haired poet refuses to be thrilled by the appearance of "the beautiful" at this season of the year.

Have your shoes repaired by John W. Mott, 34 Congress street. Satisfaction guaranteed. Hand-sewed work a specialty.

A concert and dance is to be held at Newington town hall this Wednesday evening. Eastman's orchestra will furnish the music.

Savings and national bank depositors are getting their books verified this month

according to the statute requiring